

"Kaiser Bill" Now Has Little Potsdam At Holland Home

DOORN, Holland, Aug. 10.—The former German Emperor, William, while professing a desire to lead the quiet life of a country gentleman, has nevertheless created a little court around him—somewhat larger than that which he had at Amerongen, and Dutch newspapers have already begun calling Doorn "The Little Potsdam."

The allies' demands upon Holland to guard the former Emperor closely have made it impossible for William to mingle with the Dutch country gentry who have estates about Doorn, and the house where he is said to expect to spend his remaining days is just like a little bit of Germany.

Strict military order prevails outside the House of Doorn, where passersby must not be too curious. Within the discipline is Prussian. William's only associates are German. His entire staff, including approximately 40 servants, are German, with one exception, the village barber, a Dutchman, is called in now and then to trim his hair or beard.

When at Amerongen, William went frequently to Doorn by automobile, but now, he is seldom seen outside the wire fence of his estate, which villagers call his "40 hectare cage." Forty hectares are about 80 acres.

The few times he has been out, he has paid visits to his former host, Count Bentinck, at Amerongen. Now and then, the former crown prince or others of William's sons have been permitted to visit the exile, largely because of the illness of their mother, but from day to day, William seldom sees any new faces—only his daily associates.

Another "MEANEST MAN" IN JAIL AT AMERICUS

AMERICUS, Ga., Aug. 10.—Charles Jenkins, alias Overall Charlie, a negro, is alleged to be the meanest man in Sumter county. He is in jail charged with having passed a check of $100.00 on Ed Jenkins, blind cobbler, for a $1 bill. He received 90 cents in change, besides a small surplus, which if anything, adds to the meanness of the crime.

Coroner Jenkins conducts a small store in Little, near here, and the prisoner alleged to have been passed upon him for money had evidently been wet and dried by some process which gave him the feel of the much desired. Jenkins denies he is guilty, but Deputy Sheriff S. L. Cox, who arrested him, says he has ample evidence of the negro's guilt.

ACROBATIC BURGLARS ARE LATEST NOVELTY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 10.—Acrobatic burglars are at work in Philadelphia. To get into the printing shop of Joseph Shapiro, thieves scaled the walls of two adjoining buildings, walked along a narrow ledge high above the ground and forced a window. They then carried a good-sized safe to the front of the building and tried to open it.

When found hours afterward the safe was much the worse for wear, but still unopened.

Four boys, whose gymnastic prowess would win them fame in a circus, walked over telephone wires suspended 30 feet from the ground into the third story window of the jewelry store of George Swift. While sorting a collection of jewelry they were arrested.

DITCHES OLD COMRADE ON BASEBALL WAGER

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 10.—"No chance for the Blues to win," Billy Winstead, veteran city sleuth, told a co-worker the other day, while the merits of this city's baseball team were being discussed.

"I'll say they'll win today," retorted Paul Weikam, to whom Winstead was talking.

"If it win I'll ditch my mustache," Winstead volunteered.

Wonders! The Blues handed the visitors—the Louisville club—a terrific wallop.

But Winstead was game, although the mustache had been a comrade for some 25 years. Next morning when he awoke, he found the "foliage" was missing.

BOY SCOUTS CONDUCTORS.

WARSAW, Aug. 10.—Boy Scouts acted as conductors recently during a strike of municipal employees of Warsaw, and which affected the street car system owned by the city. Men volunteers from technical schools and electrical institutions were on the front platforms of the street cars as motormen.

During the strike, for an increase in wages of from 50 to 100 per cent, volunteers operated the electric light and power plants, the water works and the gas plants, the work all being done by boys and men members of the Social Self Aid society, formed for just such an emergency.

The strike was settled by a compromise.

CIRCUS MAN KNOWS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—A circus owner, whose crop of dollars was not materializing, recently made unique use of the government's crop reports to stimulate growth of his business. He had been exhibiting where farm crops were poor and was losing hundreds of dollars daily, he told officials of the bureau of crop estimates of the department of agriculture when he called for advice. He learned what part of the United States had good crops and moved his circus to the more prosperous regions.

INDIAN CHEATS NOOSE.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Aug. 10.—The execution of John Aday, Apache Indian, set for Sept. 3, has been called off. He was convicted and sentenced to hang in the federal prison here for the murder of a fellow prisoner, Thomas Watson. Aday's application for a new trial was granted by Judge J. W. Woodrough, of Omaha. The Indian then entered a plea of guilty as charged and was given a life sentence. Aday, who is 22 years old, already was serving a life sentence when he killed Watson, for the murder of an Indian girl on the Apache reservation in Arizona.

Prominent Planter Urges Friends to Try Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy.

Mr. A. J. B., well known in Southern Louisiana, where he has a big plantation, has written Kirk Chemical Co. that he wants the world to know that Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy is better than his claims. It seems that Mr. B. suffered for many years with a stubborn case of rheumatism for which he could get no relief. The first bottle of Kirk's put him on his feet. Since that time, he has persuaded several of his friends to use the same remedy for rheumatism, lumbago and neuralgia with splendid results.

The proprietors of Kirk's Rheumatic Remedy are very conservative in their claims. They know that some people quit taking medicine too soon. Therefore, they advise each patient to take the whole bottle with the guarantee that if, after following instructions, relief is not obtained, the dealer will refund the purchase price.

This same guarantee applies to Kirk's Vigorone, a fine tonic; Kirk's Cough Syrup, Kirk's "Chill Tonic," Kirk's Sore Throat Lozenges, and Kirk's Lumbago Remedy, made by Kirk Chemical Co., Memphis, Tenn. Sold by druggists everywhere.

"Two years I had suffered acutely from stomach trouble which became so bad I could hardly retain anything at all. I was too nervous to get a good night's rest, was badly constipated and was troubled a lot by dizzy spells. Finally I became so weak and run-down that I could hardly get about."

"My physician certainly knew what I was doing when he prescribed Tanlac for me, for it has done its work wonderfully and I am now as healthy and strong as I ever was in my life. I haven't a trace of stomach trouble, nervousness or constipation left and simply feel fine all the time. Tanlac certainly deserves the strongest recommendation I can give it."

MULE LET LOOSE AND CHARLEY LOST TROUSERS

CLERBURN, Tex., Aug. 10.—Charley Dickerson, experienced horseman, while strolling in front of the First National bank here yesterday, spied a mule comely plucking grass.

Approaching the animal Charley petted it affectionately on the tank, with the result that the mule playfully landed with both hoofs just above Charley's belt. Then with a downward sweep the animal deftly removed Charley's trousers.

Seeing Dickerson's predicament, passersby rushed him into the bank where, with the aid of a telephone, he secured another pair, after which he made a hurried exit in the direction of his home a few blocks away.

FRIENDS ARE INVITED TO FUNERAL; ACCEPT

COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 10.—An invitation from Anderson Percifield, an attorney of Nashville, Ind., to attend his funeral, was accepted unanimously by members of the Bartholomew County Bar association. Writing to W. C. Duncan, an attorney and a lifelong friend, the dying man said: "I am almost in the shadows of the border line between this and the life to come," and urged that "although I suppose you may view this as strange, yet it is the desire of my heart."

The association members communicated acceptance of Percifield's invitation before he died.

Seeing Dickerson's predicament, passersby rushed him into the bank where, with the aid of a telephone, he secured another pair, after which he made a hurried exit in the direction of his home a few blocks away.
